Josh Perlman

PRAISE

“Josh is a one-of-a-kind, truly gifted leadership, organizational, and strategic consultant. Josh and I worked closely together for five years at EMC where he singlehandedly defined, created, launched, and delivered our first core Management Development program, which quickly became the highest attended and most well-received program in EMCU’s history.”

—Senior Director, HR

“I had the opportunity to collaborate with Josh on a number of training and organizational development initiatives at Monster, and was extremely impressed with his professionalism, excellent training style, and focus on business improvement. I found him to be one of the most effective trainers and facilitators I have ever worked with, and would be more than happy to work with Josh again in the future.”
