

MEET OUR EXPERTS

Judith Donin

---

PRAISE

“Judith’s passion and enthusiasm were contagious. Her mastery of the subject, dynamic style, humor, various examples, and self-disclosure made the experience extremely pertinent, applicable, and practical.”

—Pharmaceutical Industry

“Judith was absolutely brilliant as she brought high competence, high commitment, and high energy to our team and helped us build a key component for our Leadership Supply Chain program.”

—Global Vice President

“Judith had great energy and expertise, was very engaging, and responded confidently to questions and concerns. Her willingness to share personal experiences and her enthusiasm and warmth made the course very useful and easy to understand.”

—Manufacturing Industry

Judith Donin, a Senior Consulting Partner and Professional Services Mentor for North America with The Ken Blanchard Companies®, is an energetic and compelling speaker. She brings her own unique blend of flair and passion that generates momentum and inspires individuals to increase their personal effectiveness and create enhanced and lasting organization change. She builds trust for understanding her clients’ business needs, stimulates behavior change, and shares practical solutions in a challenging, enriching way.

Judith has more than 15 years of experience in the corporate world and harnesses her knowledge, along with humor and sensitivity, to link learning objectives with defined business goals. She facilitates and consults with people at all levels of organizations, from C-suite executives to frontline employees. Judith’s industry experience includes financial, health, retail, armed services, law enforcement, pharmaceutical, manufacturing, oil and gas, and information technology. She has extensive consulting and training experience in Europe, the Middle East, South Africa, Asia, the United States, and Canada. Using her deep awareness of global and cultural diversity, she successfully designs and implements hands-on training programs.

Prior to joining Blanchard® in 2005, Judith worked in leadership positions for global blue-chip organizations, managing teams to enhance productivity and achieve lasting, proven results while using characteristics that she still exemplifies today: vision, strategic awareness, and respect. Consequently, her examples and anecdotes are always related back to specific business outcomes to ensure a contextualized learning experience.

Judith is qualified to deliver Blanchard’s core programs, including SLII®, Self Leadership, Team Leadership, Coaching Essentials® for Leaders, Leading People Through Change®, Whale Done!®, Raving Fans®, DISC, Optimal Motivation®, and the MBTI® assessment.

In her spare time, Judith enjoys cooking, international travel, learning about different religions, kayaking, and hiking.