Kelly C. Weiley

PRAISE

“Kelly always does a masterful job of assessing needs and planning collaboratively, creating dynamic sessions, and providing high-quality programming.”

—Associate Director

“Of all the great trainers I have had the opportunity to work with across the globe, Kelly C. Weiley is among the best. She has a strong understanding of sound organizational and leadership principles and her knowledge, sensitivity, and energy keep individuals focused and engaged. Kelly has the unique ability to connect with people in a way that guides groups in a common direction. She skillfully delivers curriculum by recognizing the individual needs of each class member while navigating through the toughest of group dynamics.”

—Program Manager

“Kelly is a skilled trainer and facilitator who has worked with diverse populations and client bases. She is client-centered in her planning, execution, and evaluation, and seeks to provide clients and partners with a high-quality experience from start to finish.”

—Director, Nonprofit/Education Services

Kelly C. Weiley is a Consulting Partner for The Ken Blanchard Companies®. Her style of training creates an engaging, relevant, and actionable experience for all participants. Kelly’s focus on reaching every learner in the room makes her trainings both constructive and memorable. She is a seasoned facilitator whose ability to pivot and adapt on the fly makes her successful with people in a variety of management levels and functions. Her energy and enthusiasm keep participants on their toes while imparting valuable skills and transformative knowledge.

Kelly’s facilitation experience spans both the public and private sector, including government, nonprofit, education, and philanthropy. Specific areas of expertise are leadership, communication, diversity, equity and inclusion, emotional intelligence, team building, and coaching. Kelly authored “How SLII® Is Key to Fixing the Worker Shortage in Minneapolis,” wrote two book chapters on internationally focused service-learning, and peer-reviewed multiple academic journal submissions on interculturally focused education initiatives.

Kelly is currently adjunct faculty at Northwestern University (Evanston, IL) in the Master of Learning & Organizational Change program and has previously held adjunct faculty positions at the University of Minnesota, the University of St. Thomas, and St. Cloud State University.

Kelly is a Certified Mediator and holds a Bachelor of Music degree from Northwestern University as well as a Master of Science in Social Responsibility from St. Cloud State University. In addition to being a Qualified Administrator for the Intercultural Development Inventory® (IDI), Kelly is qualified to deliver a variety of Blanchard products both face-to-face and virtually, including SLII®, Self Leadership, Coaching Essentials and First Time Manager.

Kelly enjoys yoga, swimming, singing, DIY projects, and traveling in her spare time.
