

Nancy Biggar

Nancy Biggar, a Senior Consulting Partner with The Ken Blanchard Companies®, is a highly experienced consultant, facilitator, and speaker who is passionate about helping others move toward the realization of their goals. Her open, warm, and energetic approach engages clients in proactive learning and stimulates their drive for growth and positive outcomes.

Her wealth of training and consulting experience was earned throughout the world. For more than two decades, she has worked with a variety of clients in Eastern Europe, the Middle East, North America, Asia, and Africa. Nancy is a Master Facilitator of The SLII Experience™ and highly knowledgeable in Blanchard's other core products, with extensive expertise in one-to-one leadership, team leadership, motivation, talent management, and leading people through change.

When Nancy was based in Istanbul, she was instrumental in forming the partnership between The Ken Blanchard Companies and The Management Development Center, which is now Blanchard International Turkey. Prior to that, she held positions as an internal consultant and trainer for the government of Ontario and a senior policy and financial analyst for Ontario's ten largest cultural institutions. Nancy has participated in the renowned Niagara Institute's Leadership & Vision program for high-potential leaders under the age of 40. She has been a lecturer at the University of Western Ontario and the University of Istanbul's International MBA program, and a guest lecturer in the Executive Management program at Sabanci University in Turkey.

Nancy received her Bachelor of Arts degree (hons.) in History from University of Waterloo, is an Associate Certified Coach through the International Coach Federation, and holds a certificate in marketing management from Western University.

Nancy's native language is English and she is proficient in Turkish. She enjoys playing tennis, sailing, and traveling.
